Poetry is everywhere;

it just needs editing.

James Tate, an American poet

Life

By Kinga Mielnicka

life is a tape,

which length we do not know

life is a play,

which script we do not have

life is a board game,

which board we do not understand life is a movie,

in which we sometimes pretend life is a battle,

in which we fall at the end

but life is a gift,

which we should not misspend
